Explore Central Europe this SUMMER on CETS!
(Central European Travel Seminar)
Summer, 2018: May 30-June 26
Study Abroad with UWEC Professors:
Jill Olm (Art & Design), Jeff DeGrave (Geography and Anthropology), Chia-Yu Hsu (Music and Theater)

WHAT IS CETS?: A 3-credit GE-V upper-level interdisciplinary (IDIS 340) study abroad course examining the history, art, music, and geography of Central Europe—in Central Europe!

WHO MAY APPLY: Anyone with a GPA of 2.5—or higher!

PROGRAM COSTS: Approximately $2,300* which includes:
- three credits of tuition, application fee, insurance, all lodging and travel within and between cities, at least one meal a day, and all tickets to museums, historic sites, geographic excursions, and musical events
- *Estimate is subject to change due to global market forces, currency exchange rates, etc.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL COSTS: Airfare: $800-$1,600;
- 1-2 meals per day: $500;
- Souvenirs: $250

PREREQUISITES: A 3-credit spring 2018 preparatory course: Art History 350 and NO FOREIGN LANGUAGE NEEDED!

FINANCIAL AID: Regular financial aid for the 2018 Summer Session applies!

APPLICATION PRIORITY DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 15, 2017

This program fills VERY quickly so APPLY SOON!

NEED MORE INFO? Contact Jill Olm (olmj@uwec.edu), Jeff DeGrave (degravjr@uwec.edu), Chia-Yu Hsu (hsuc@uwec.edu) or Shanti Freitas, UWEC Intercultural Immersion Coordinator (freitasb@uwec.edu).
Applications available online at: http://www.uwec.edu/cie/studyabroad/
Learn more about past CETS experiences on the program’s Twitter page: twitter.com/UWEC_CETS
And on Facebook: UW-Eau Claire Central European Travel Seminar